

Special Meeting - August 7, 1962

A special meeting to discuss the possibility of a local demonstration in ~~favor~~ support of N.J. clergymen arrested in Albany, Ga., was called to order by the Chairman, Robert Curvin.

After reports on the Freedom Highways project, and the disposition of the Shedd Battle case, the group discussed the merits of having a local demonstration within three days - during Labor Day weekend. It was moved not to demonstrate on the holiday weekend. The motion was carried, with 6 votes in favor, and 5 opposed.

It was moved to plan a demonstration for the immediate future. This motion was amended to demonstrate in one week - on Saturday, September 8. The motion was carried by an 8-2 vote.

The Chair asked that volunteers to plan and carry out the demonstration meet immediately after the adjournment of this special meeting.

The meeting was adjourned.
